Mr. Allan C. Hubbard
The Western Union Telegraph Co.
1826 L Street N.W.
Suite 1001
Washington, D.C. 20036

Dear Mr. Hubbard:

Reference is made to your DSP-5 application with accompanying letter, both dated August 8, 1986, requesting Department of State approval to export to China Great Wall Industry Corporation of the People's Republic of China certain technical data related to interface characteristics of your Westar VI-S civil communications satellite for the purpose of determining whether the Chinese Long March III launch vehicle could launch the Westar VI-S.

The Department has approved your application and encloses herewith License No. 309443, subject to the following conditions and limitations:

1. The license covers only the transfer of information necessary for determining interface compatibility and loads analysis and for verifying the capability of the Chinese launch vehicle to place the Westar VI-S satellite in the desired orbit.

2. The license does not permit the transfer in any manner whatsoever of any (a) development, production or use information related to the Westar VI-S satellite or (b) the provision of any technical data, technical assistance or services related to the Chinese launch vehicle. //

3. Any follow-on requests for additional information (other than what has been reviewed and specifically approved in this case) or for the exportation of the satellite itself will require separate review and approval.

4. Your firm must make it clear to all concerned that final determination of the follow-on cases referred to in proviso three above will be subject to satisfying the following requirements:

- a). Receipt from Western Union of a new request for approval, accompanied by the necessary background and including in particular a final contract clearly describing the satellite equipment as well as the technical data to be delivered under the contract.

3.

- b). Receipt from the Chinese authorities of a satisfactory assurance governing protection of the equipment and data from unauthorized access or disclosures. (The content of the assurance will be determined by the Department following receipt ~~of~~ and review of the new request).

5. You may not use the enclosed license to effect the exportation of the authorized information until after you obtain and deliver to the Department a statement (signed by an authorized official of the foreign consignee and addressed to the Office of Munitions Control, Department of State) assuring the Department that the technical data will be used exclusively in connection with the proposed launch of the Westar VI-S satellite and will not be used for other purposes or transferred to any third parties or countries without the prior written approval of the Department.

Sincerely yours,

William B. Robinson
Director
Office of Munitions Control
